VIP MEAL PLAN TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- All VIP Meal Memberships are sold as a yearly contract. You will be billed for the meal plan selected in fall and automatically billed in spring on your student account.
- Roll over meals do not apply to cancelled or downgraded meal plans. Roll over VIP meals only roll over from the fall to the spring semester.

- Any remaining VIP meals at the end of the spring semester are forfeited and do not roll over to the summer semester or the following fall semester.
- You may treat guests with your VIP Meal Membership.
- If you run low on the VIP meals, you may purchase another VIP Meal Membership anytime throughout the semester.
- If you purchase any item(s) not associated with the VIP Meal Membership combo selections, you will be required to pay the difference with Dining Dollars, Bama Cash, Cash or Credit Card.
- All dining room policies and standards apply to this meal plan.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations are not allowed, with the exception of:

- VIP Meal Membership cancellations for the fall term are not permitted after the second Friday of each semester.
- Spring cancellations are only permitted for upperclassmen who are new meal plan members for the spring term. No changes will be accepted after the second Friday of each semester.

If you withdraw from the University you may cancel your VIP Meal Membership. Refunds will be posted to your student account based on the proration of tuition schedule set by Student Account Services or the number of meals consumed at a cost of $10.50 per meal, whichever is greater. This proration schedule is absolute and can be found at Student Account Services. All permitted cancellations will incur a $35 service charge.

DINING ROOM POLICIES:

- Dining Location Behavior: The community nature of a university dining location is unique. Unlike any other eating situation, elements of both a home atmosphere and a restaurant dining environment are present. Students must respect the rights of, and cooperate with, other diners in maintaining a clean and pleasant environment. We ask your cooperation in keeping the dining location atmosphere one that everyone can enjoy.
- Dining Location Attire: Casual, comfortable attire may be worn at all University dining facilities. However, students without shirts, shoes with soles, or wearing only bathing suits will not be admitted to the dining locations.
- Misuse of your Action Card for Meals: Per UA policy, the Action Card is non-transferable; it is a violation of the UA Student Code for a student to use another student's Action Card. Unauthorized use, tampering, or alteration may result in disciplinary action.
- Lost Action Cards: If your Action Card is lost or stolen, immediately contact the Action Card Office at 205-348-2288 during regular business hours and after hours or holidays, please call UAPD at 205-348-5454.
- Service Animals: See policy here.
